Volunteers continue to be an important indicator of community participation with the Centre.

Our volunteer hours are tracked in two streams: Governance Hours (Board of Directors) and Operational Hours (volunteers assisting with programs or administration etc). Combined, they clearly show the significant support the Centre enjoys from the community.

Our volunteers range in age from 15 into their 70's; some volunteer as husband and wife couples, some as families, many as individuals – all of whom are dedicated to the Centre and are excited to be involved.

Volunteers Provide Significant Value and Support to the Centre

Based on the 2736 total volunteer hours donated to the Centre in 2016 --- generous supporters of the Centre generated $44,597 (average of value of $16.30/hour) in administrative, governance and operational support to the Centre and to Aurora.

We are grateful for the dedicated help we receive from our amazing volunteers!

In partnership with the Institute for Canadian Citizenship, to introduce new Canadian citizens to cultural offerings here, and across the Country, we are the first stop of newcomers in their pursuit and interest of cultural activities in York Region.

We are an easily-accessible location in the heart of York Region. In 2016 we welcomed 179 new Canadian citizens to Aurora.

Cultural Passes for two!

Culture for All – We are Accessible

- The Centre offers a mix of programs aimed to be accessible for the community. This includes some free family activities, and free access to the Centre and its four art galleries.
- The Centre actively seeks out sponsors who make it possible for us to bring at least one professional show to the community for free annually.
- In 2016 we delivered 7 free community events at a cost to the Centre of only $1,500.
- We make our artist space available free of charge as an open studio one day per week for artists to create together, rather than working in isolation.
- The art students of St. Max. Kolbe Catholic High School donated funds to the Centre that allowed us to partner with Big Brothers, Big Sisters York Region to provide six children with the opportunity to attend summer arts camps at the Centre at no charge.
- We requested and received enhanced accessibility wayfinding signage for the exterior of the Centre. We have protocols in place to assist with the accessibility needs of our visitors.

Responding to the Needs of Children & Youth

- We invite and mentor Aurora high school art students to plan, create, hang and launch youth driven art exhibitions in the Centre's professional galleries.
- Centre staff spend a significant amount of time in the classroom, and outside of it, assisting with the student art program. In 2017 we are presenting a trial for a town-wide enriched youth curatorial committee.
- The Centre welcomed children and their families to two plays and a concert presentation by legendary Canadian Fred Penner as part of our commitment to programming for our youngest citizens.
- We mentor five local high school students with 120 hours each of individual onsite programming annually. This includes developing a unique program to support student goals, provide engaged daily supervision and teaching, and final evaluations with the teacher.
- In the 2016 cycle, students came to the Centre requesting to gain experience in the areas of Gallery Administration, Event Management & Marketing, Curation & Marketing, and Research.
- In 2016 the Centre provided an enriched long term placement for a local university student studying Arts Administration. We mentored the student on all facets of her education and invited her to participate in hanging her first professional art exhibition assisting the artist and our staff.
- To inspire artistically-minded young people, we make an effort to present some early career visual artists and classical performing artists, and provide student concert rates that allow young people access to rising stars in their genres

Responding to the Interests of Seniors

The Centre is a "senior-friendly," accessible environment with supportive and knowledgeable staff.

- We are the home of Third Age Learning York Region, a fall and spring lecture series specifically for seniors.
- We offer daytime art classes and Open Studio which by virtue of timing is comprised primarily of seniors.
- Moderately priced, world-class concerts are a draw to seniors who consistently rave about having the opportunity to enjoy music in their own town without having to drive downtown.
- We partner annually with the Aurora Seniors' Centre for a free sing-along, where we welcome a large number of seniors to sing the songs of their youth. Planned to occur on, or close to, the anniversary of D-Day, we also include recognition of the Canadian and British war effort.
- We work closely with local seniors' residences and create enhanced visitor experiences with tours and art talks designed for seniors.
